COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1917 — 122nd of the General Assembly

VOL. 4. HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 17, 1917. No. 57.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, May 17, 1917.

The House met at 9.30 o'clock A. M.
The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin) in the chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. S. G. Zerfass, offered the following prayer:

Great God, Creator and Preserver of the Universe, we thank Thee for Thy providential care and protection over us during the silent shades of another night.

Wilt Thou be with us now in our deliberations here and bless us all as Thou seest we stand in need of.

We recognize that without Thee, we can do nothing. We pray Thee to make us appreciate Thee at all times and under all conditions. Make us ever happy in the consciousness of duty well done so that we may live to be good, true and beautiful, a credit to Thee as Thy divine images. Save us all, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings, when, on motion of Mr. Woodward, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Section 4 The sum of five thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated for the purposes aforesaid in this act to be paid by the State Treasurer upon the warrant of the Auditor General on requisition of the Water Supply Commission of Pennsylvania

Whereas The Borough of Lawrenceville Tioga County is situated on a low-lying plat between the Tioga and Cowanesque Rivers and immediately above the confluence of said rivers and

Whereas Said borough about fifteen years ago built dikes along both of said rivers to protect said borough from the waters of said rivers during the flood time and for said purposes issued bonds to defray the cost thereof and

Whereas The Cowanesque River has been a growing menace for the last five years the channel thereof becoming filled with dirt and the overflow thereof undermining and destroying the dikes built for the protection of said borough and

Whereas By a flood during the month of June one thousand nine hundred and sixteen the waters of the river Cowanesque rose to such a height that they ran over said dikes and flooded said Borough of Lawrenceville doing great damage polluting the wells and leaving the land covered with refuse and river mud which caused sickness and death to the inhabitants thereof and

Whereas The Borough of Lawrenceville being a small community is unable to bear the expense of protecting itself further from the floods of the Cowanesque River therefore

An Act to authorize the Water Supply Commission to build a dike or dikes for the protection of property in the Borough of Lawrenceville Tioga County and making an appropriation therefor

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like at this time to ascertain the reason as to why the bills of the Appropriation Committee are not on file.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has not had time to make an inquiry, and consequently the Chair cannot answer the question. Possibly some one in the House can.

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, the bills were just reported out yesterday at three o'clock, and I do not think the printers had time to get them ready and on the files.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 10.25 A. M.) the House adjourned until Monday evening, May 21, 1917, at 9 o'clock.

NOTE.

Before House Bill No. 1576 was passed over for the present, as appears by record of the proceedings on page 2145 of the Legislative Journal, the following remarks were made by Mr. Wallace:

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, there is just one question that I want to raise on this bill. I understand that Mr. Woodward will be here in a moment. The question I wish to raise on this bill is this: I believe under the provisions of this bill that it will reduce the tax on the distillers and brewers, manufacturers of intoxicating liquors, will reduce their tax from ten mills to five mills,—that is the question I wanted to ask. Under the provisions of this bill, on page 6, it provides for a tax of five mills on all manufacturing corporations including brewers and distillers. As the law now stands, they pay ten mills tax, and while this is a revenue raiser on other manufacturing corporations, I believe it to be a revenue reducer on these particular corporations.

Session 1917 — 122nd of the General Assembly

VOL. 4. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, MAY 21, 1917. No. 58.

SENATE.

MONDAY, May 21, 1917.

The Senate met at 9 o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. E. E. Beidleman) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Thomas W. Davis, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we thank Thee for the ever increasing inspirations and opportunities of life. It is true that we have got to pay very heavily for these enlarged blessings, but we are willing to pay the price. We thank Thee for the splendid preparation already made to meet the crisis that is upon us. We pray Thy blessing upon our President and upon all who are associated with him throughout the entire nation in making these preparations. These favors we ask in our Saviour's name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. SPROUL, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Mr. VARE asked and obtained leave of absence for the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. W. W. Smith, for the balance of the week on account of illness.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 55.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 17, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval Senate Bill No. 55, entitled "An Act to quiet the title to real estate and to enable citizens of the United States and corporations authorized to hold real estate within this Commonwealth to hold and convey title to real estate which has been formerly held by or for corporations not authorized by law to hold the same."

This Bill is identical in import and in language with House Bill No. 386, which was approved Thursday, May 17, 1917. There is, obviously, therefore no need of this bill receiving executive approval.

For this reason this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR SENATE BILL NO. 696.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr McNICHOL. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend the title, page 1, line 2, by striking out the word "fourth" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twenty-ninth;" also line 2, by striking out the word "seven" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "fifteenth;" also line 3, by striking out the word "a population;" also line 4, by striking out the words "from three," and inserting in lieu thereof the words, "over eight;" also by striking out the words "to one million" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "and less than one million five hundred thousand inhabitants, according to the last preceding United States census;" also section 1, page 2, line 1, by striking out the word "fourth" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twenty-ninth;" also line 2, by striking out the word "seven" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "fifteen;" also by striking out the word "fifty;" also line 3, by striking out the word "eight" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "two hundred;" also by striking out "a pop-;" also line 4, by striking out "ulation from three" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "over eight;" also by striking out the words "to one million" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "and less than one million five hundred thousand inhabitants, according to the last preceding United States census."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 680.

He also presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 17, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval Senate Bill No. 680, entitled "An Act to amend section two of an act approved the fifteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven entitled 'An Act providing for the appointment by the district attorney in counties having a population of over one million and less than one million five hundred thousand inhabitants of a chief county detective and assistant county detective and special county detectives defining their duties fixing their salaries and authorizing the payment of the same together with the necessary traveling expenses by the county and providing for additional salary and expenses.'"

This bill amends the act of June 15, 1911 (P. L. 965) by increasing the salary of each special county detective from $125 per month to $150 per month.

The merit of this request to increase these salaries has been questioned. The people of the county concerned pay the increase. Why then, should not the Commissioners of the County, who are the direct representatives of the people concerned themselves grant such increase. It is their function, not the Commonwealth's. The representatives from other parts of the Commonwealth have no means of knowing what is just and fair in such cases. They should not be obliged to do what is clearly the duty of another legally constituted body of competent jurisdiction.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. ENDSLEY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 115.

He also presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 17, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen. I return herewith, without my approval Senate Bill No. 115, entitled "An Act to promote uniformity in all courts of record in issuing writs and process for the beginning of civil actions."

This bill provides that civil actions begun in all courts of records shall use the same form of writ as is now issuable out of courts of common pleas in like actions.

The bill is indefinite. It seeks to do by indirection what if proper to do should be done directly. It cannot apply to courts of quarter sessions, nor to orphans' courts, and yet these are courts of record. If it is intended to apply to the Philadelphia Municipal Court and the County Court in Allegheny it should say so.

Should it be approved it would doubtless cause litigation and involve the action and process of the courts. Such litigation should be avoided, not encouraged. A bill that opens the way to litigation and that causes delay or confusion is not desirable.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 675.

He also presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 17, 1917.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen. I return herewith, without my approval Senate Bill No. 675, entitled "An Act validating marriages contracted on or before the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six within or without the State of Pennsylvania between parties resident within the State of Pennsylvania at the time of the approval of this act where continuous cohabitation of the parties contracting the marriage for a period of twenty-one years has followed such marriage notwithstanding any impediment or obstacle which may have existed under the law of Pennsylvania at the time such marriage was performed and making legitimate all children born of parents whose marriages are validated under this act."

This bill proposes to validate marriages contracted on or before January 1, 1896, which marriages were followed by continuous cohabitation of the parties for a period of twenty-one years. The bill provides that no matter what the impediment or obstacle may have been at the time of contracting the marriage, if the parties live together for twenty-one years the marriage is to be considered valid and binding. Should a married man desert his lawful wife and run away with another man's wife, entering into a contract of marriage and living together for twenty-one years, this latter and illegal marriage would by this bill become legal. Thus the man would have two wives and the woman two husbands. Divorce and property rights are not considered. Such violation of the sanctity and legality of the marriage state is so manifectly contrary to justice and social security that the Commonwealth should not for a moment countinance it.

Moreover, the marriage relation itself is a contract involving property rights. It carries the dower rights of a wife and the property rights of legitimate children. This bill would deny property rights to the deserted wife and transfer them to the "wife" of a bigamous marriage. Should the man die intestate it would divide his property, real and personal, equally among the children of his first wife and the illegitimate children by his bigamous marriage. If the first wife is dead this bill is unnecessary since the man can then lawfully remarry and thus legitimatize his children. It is solely an attempt to deny a living and deserted wife her legal rights.

The effect of the bill is thus seen to be to declare that the present lawful wife is not his wife and that another woman who occupies an illegal relation is his wife. This is morally censorable and legally impossible since it impairs the obligation of contracts, thus violating Article I, Section 17 of the Constitution.

It is vicious special legislation. It violates Article III, Section 7 of the Constitution. There is no reason for validating such illegal alliances made before January 1, 1896 and not validating the same sort of reprehensible action after that date.

The bill has not one redeeming feature. Neither in law nor in morals is it sound or meritorious. It violates the sanctity of the marriage state and is in purpose contrary to all that is fundamentally right in our home life.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. ENDSLEY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

HOUSE MESSAGE.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1117 RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented for concurrence the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives, May 21, 1917.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That House Bill No. 1117, entitled "An Act providing that appointive officers and employes employed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in its civil service or by any department bureau commission or office thereof or by any county municipality or school district shall not be deemed or held to have resigned or abandoned their offices or employments by reason of enlistment or draft in the army or navy of the United States in time of war or contemplated war prohibiting the removal from their offices or employments of such officers and employes during the period of their service in the army or navy directing that one-half of the salaries or wages of such officers or employes as have dependent wives children or parents and not exceeding two thousand dollars per annum be paid during the term of their service in the army or navy to such dependants authorizing the employment during said term of substitutes to perform the duties theretofore performed by such officers or employes respectively and providing for the compensation of such substitutes," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

RESOLUTION URGING UPON THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES BILL CARRYING AN ADEQUATE APPROPRIATION FOR THE CARRYING ON AND MAINTENANCE OF THE PROJECT OF THE DELAWARE RIVER CHANNEL.

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate, as follows:

In the Senate, May 16, 1917.

Whereas, the Senate of the United States at its last regular session failed to pass the Rivers and Harbors Bill which contained appropriations for the continuance of the sylvania hereby urges upon the Congress of the United for beginning work on a new project for a wider and deeper channel in the Schuylkill, provision for the acquirement by the Government of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, and many other important items; and

Whereas, Unless further appropriations are made for the continuance of the work and the maintenance of the channel already completed, the unfinished work on the channel of the Delaware River must be abandoned on the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen; and thereby the project on which large sums of money have already been expended will become of little or no value; and

Whereas, The importance of the Navy of the United States, and particularly to the Philadelphia Navy Yard, of the continuance of this work to final completion and its continued maintenance cannot be overestimated, particularly during the present period of the war with Germany, therefore

Be it resolved if the House of Representatives concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby urges upon the Congress of the United States the importance of the passage at its present extraordinary session, of a Rivers and Harbors bill, carrying an adequate appropriation for the carrying on and maintenance of the project of the Delaware River Channel; and

Be it further resolved, That copies of this resolution be presented to the Senators and Congressmen representing this Commonwealth in the Congress of the United States; and that said Senators and Congressmen are hereby urged to exert their greatest efforts for the furtherance and final passage of such a measure.

The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Rev. H. B. Ritter, of Oley, Berks County, Pa., offered the following prayer:

O God, who in olden time didst out of the nations choose a people for thine own, and didst cause Thy glory to dwell among them, lead them at length to the land of Thy promise: as by Thy providence Thou didst lead our forefathers to this land wherein they found refuge from oppression and peace after storm; so, we beseech Thee, now to guide our nation and our Commonwealth in the way of Thy truth and peace, causing Thy glory to dwell in us in faithfulness to Thy Holy word, in love to Thee and devoted service to our fellow men; that we may never fail in the blessing which Thou givest to that people whose God is the Lord; through the same and for his name's sake. Amen.

RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 1117 FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. BEYER offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives, May 21, 1917.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 1117, entitled "An Act providing that appointive officers and employes employed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in civil service or by any department, bureau, commission or office thereof or by any county, municipality or school district, shall not be deemed or held to have resigned or abandoned their offices or employments by reason of enlistment or draft in the army or navy of the United States in time of war or contemplated war; prohibiting the removal from their offices or employments of such officers and employes during the period of their service in the army or navy; directing that one-half of the salaries or wages of such officers or employes as have dependent wives, children or parents and not exceeding two thousand dollars per annum be paid during the term of their service in the army or navy to such dependents; authorizing the employment during said term of substitutes to perform the duties theretofore performed by such officers or employes respectively, and providing for the compensation of such substitutes," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, I move that Senate Bill No. 325, House Bill No. 1867, File Folio 847, entitled

An Act providing for the sale distribution and use for the promotion of biological science and for the discovery of new methods of treatment in medicine and surgery of unclaimed animals in the public pounds and providing penalties for neglect or refusal to comply with the provisions of this act on page 62 of today's calendar be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation for the purpose of a hearing.

Mr. ARTHUR. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL.

Mr. THEODORE CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I move that Senate Bill No. 540, House Bill No. 1233, File Folio 3661, entitled

An Act for the protection of the public health; by regulating the possession, control, receipt, administering, prescribing, dispensing, sale, delivering, and giving away of certain drugs and keeping records thereof; by regulating the administering, dispensing, prescribing and delivery of certain drugs to habitual users of said drugs and regulating the treatment and cure of said habitual users of said drugs; by providing for the revocation of the licenses of physicians, dentists, veterinarians, pharmacists and registered nurses for drug addiction and for violating the provisions of this act; and otherwise fixing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, this is the Vare drug bill, or narcotic drug bill, which has been twice in the committee of Public Health and Sanitation. It has been in the House for at least four weeks, and it has been amended and is on the calendar for second reading now. I do not know of any good reason why it should be sent back to the Committee at this time. It has had a hearing, and it has had various amendments, and it finally came out in such shape that it was satisfactory to the sponsor.

Mr. THEODORE CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, my purpose in having this bill recommitted to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation is for the purpose of amending the enforcement thereof. My contention is that the enforcement of this act is at the wrong place. It is there for the purpose of creating a new department, and I therefore hope my motion will prevail.

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that it is unnecessary to recommit the bill to the Committee for a purpose of that kind. If the gentleman from Philadelphia has any amendment to offer, which he thinks will improve the bill, he can do so on second reading where the bill now is on the calendar. He has had the bill in his possession as chairman of the sub-committee of the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation for many weeks, and has amended it, and finally the whole Committee has reported the bill out, and it was given very thorough consideration there as it was in the Senate many weeks ago. If the gentleman from Philadelphia has any amendments, as I said before, I think they should be offered to the House at this time, and that further delays ought not to be countenanced by the House.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE.

Mr. POWELL asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. Aston on account of death in the family.

Mr. HESS asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. Reitzel.

Mr. COX asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. Cummins on account of sickness.

Mr. BRADY asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. Richards on account of sickness.

Mr. McCURDY asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. Brumbaugh on account of sickness.

Mr. EBY asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. Wood.

Mr. SPROWLS asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. McPeake.

Mr. McCAIG asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. Wickman, who is confined in the hospital.

Mr. DELL. Mr. Speaker, I have received a telegram from Mr. Shunk, informing me that he is unavoidably detained at home this week. I therefore ask for leave of absence for him for the week.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objections and leave is granted.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. BEYER. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1882, File Folio 6783, entitled

An Act imposing a state tax on money earned as compensation for the giving of or participation in any theatrical exhibition or performance within this Commonwealth by a person firm association or corporation residing or domiciled without this Commonwealth and requiring the collection and payment of such tax by the owner proprietor manager lessee or operator of theatre or place in which such an exhibition or performance takes place.

on page 53 of to-day's calendar, bills on second reading, be recommitted to the Committee on Ways and Means for the purpose of a hearing.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1499.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1499, File Folio 5975, entitled

An Act granting power in certain cases to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or to any department thereof and to any municipal subdivision of the Commonwealth to purchase or condemn lands having thereon located road building material and to enter upon and cross private property and to locate and erect necessary machinery thereon and providing a method for the assessment of damages was defeated on final passage on Wednesday, May 16, 1917, be reconsidered.

Mr. DELL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I would say for the information of the House that this is the eminent domain bill which was defeated on Wednesday last. Some of the gentlemen who were against it suggested some amendments which I am perfectly willing to frame and put in the bill, in which event they said they desired that I should pass. I desire to be given an opportunity to do this.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER).

The SPEAKER. On page 1 of to-day's calendar, there is a special order for ten o'clock. The Chair would like to take the special order up at this time, if there are no objections. The Chair hears none.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1369 (Senate Bill No. 243), entitled

An Act to repeal an act approved the twenty-fourth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen entitled "An act to regulate nominations and elections for all elective offices of cities of the second class and all offices of judge of a court of record providing for non-partisan nominations and elections for said offices abolishing certain existing methods of nomination in such cases and the use of party or political names or appellations at elections with respect to said offices imposing certain duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth county commissioners and election officers and clerks and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions hereof and the punishment of certain offenses" in so far as it relates to nominations and elections for election offices in cities of the second class

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ROSS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this bill is to repeal the non-partisan law for cities of the second class, of which the City of Pittsburgh is almost six-sevenths of the entire population and valuation of all cities of the second class in the Commonwealth, and I am thoroughly convinced that the majority of the voters of the City of Pittsburgh do not want this law repealed. This bill was on the calendar several weeks ago and was referred back to the Committee on Elections for a public hearing. Twenty-seven people appeared before that committee from the City of Pittsburgh, representing the civic organizations with a membership of over twenty thousand, and protested against the passage of this bill. Not one person from any second-class city appeared in favor of the bill. One gentleman spoke in favor of the bill and he said he represented the City of Scranton. I fail to see where that would be any that he was not a resident of the City of Scranton and had no vote in that municipality. The point that he brought out in his argument was the fact, as I remember, that it would cost eighty thousand dollars to elect a mayor in the City of Scranton. I fail to see where that would be any more excuse for the abolishing of the non-partisan ballot law in the cities of the second class than it would be for the voters of the twenty-eight congressional districts to ask for a non-partisan ballot law to be applied to each congressional district from the fact that it would cost too much to elect a candidate to Congress in that district.

Now, Mr. Speaker and gentleman of the House, this law was drafted by the Pittsburgh Charter Commission and it was enacted into a law upon the written request of over fifteen thousand voters of the City of Pittsburgh, and the Charter Commission has the names and addresses of those petitioners and can produce them upon the request of any person that wants to examine them. The only authentic way by which we can get the desire of the voters of a municipality is by a referendum vote and in lieu thereof by the voice of the various political and civic organizations in that municipality. Now, in the City of Pittsburgh, we have one of the best Republican city committees in this Commonwealth, composed of one Republican from each election precinct; we have a Democratic city committee and twenty-seven ward Democratic organizations, and twenty-seven ward Republican organizations, composed of four Republicans from each election precinct, making a total of seventeen hundred and eighty-eight men taking an active part in politics throughout the municipality. Any or all of these organizations could be assembled inside of twenty-four hours to take action on anything; and this bill has been properly advertised by the Pittsburgh Despatch and other newspapers for over five weeks and not one of these organizations has been called together to take any action. On the other hand, you take the Pittsburgh Charter Commission, the allied Boards of Trade and the Allegheny County Civic Club. They represent over twenty thousand voters, with a membership that represents practically every political organization in the Commonwealth, and they have unanimously passed a resolution opposing this bill. In addition to that we have our City Council, and all of you gentlemen who know anything about a City Council know that they are politicians. That is a legislative body in a municipality that plays politics and it practices politics in the most practical manner known to the art of man, and the Pittsburgh Council is no exception to the general rule. They are good politicians; they are good men; they are good Republicans; and a number of them are good Progressive Penrose Republicans and a number of them are good Progressive anti-Penrose Republicans; and after a pro and con argument, without any dissenting vote, they passed a resolution opposing this bill. In the district that I represent in this House, the twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth wards, we have a Committee, a Ward Committee, having two hundred members in their executive committee and not one of these men has applied to me or asked me to vote in favor of this bill; but, on the other hand, many of them have spoken to me and asked me to oppose this bill. The Chairman of the Twelfth Ward and the Chairman of the Fourteenth Ward are both decidedly opposed to this bill, and in their committee there are one hundred and forty-four out of the two hundred. The various civic organizations in that district are all opposed to this bill; and these are not organizations with a large membership and just a few present to pass a resolution, but in that district that I represent in this House on last Saturday night three weeks ago an organization with over four hundred members present unanimously passed a resolution asking me to oppose this bill.

Now, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have given you these facts and if you are convinced that the majority of Pittsburgh are opposed to this bill, in behalf of the people of Pittsburgh I would like you to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. SULLIVAN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I regret the fact in this connection that makes it necessary for me to differ from my distinguished friend from Allegheny County. This bill has been in existence for several years, and speaking form a Republican standpoint, we have found it a failure in Pittsburgh because we feel as Republicans, and the Democrats I presume feel the same way, that the mayor of a second-class city and its council should be responsible to some political organization; and for that reason, Mr. Speaker, I take this occasion to speak from a Republican standpoint. If it is well to elect a mayor in a second-class city on a non-partisan ticket that law would be just as applicable for mayors and councils in cities of the first class and cities of the third class. It seems to me, Mr. Speaker, as this applies only to the cities of the second class and the people I ordinarily associate with and the people that I know in the City of Pittsburgh, a second-class city, are opposed to this measure; and as we have given the committee that came here some weeks ago a hearing and discussed this measure in the Committee on Elections, and as that committee has decided to report the bill out favorably, I would ask this House to stand by the committee and vote "aye" on this measure.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. ROSS. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

The roll was verified as follows:

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time from page 5 of to-day's calendar, bills on final passage postponed, House Bill No. 1240, File Folio 3969.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1240, entitled

An Act to regulate and improve the civil service of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and of the counties therein having a population of two hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants or more, and of such other counties and of such cities of the third class therein as may accept its provisions by a vote of the people of such counties or cities respectively, making any violation of its provisions a misdemeanor and providing penalties for any violations thereof.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally,

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, this is the Civil Service Bill. At this time I think it has been demonstrated by the people of the world and to their satisfaction that efficiency in government is of the greatest importance. This bill is intended to bring under civil service the government of counties of this State of two hundred and fifty thousand population and over, as well as the State government and other counties and cities of the third class when they accept it by an election. When they elect it would come under the provisions of this act. I want to briefly call to your attention to the fact that your party and mine, if you belong to either of the great political parties, has had provision in their platform for many years approving civil service, and you, my friends, who live in districts that have postmasters there of the first, second or third class will recall that only recently our President, Woodrow Wilson, has extended civil service to those three departments of our postoffice. Hereafter when a man in either the first, second or third class postoffice districts comes up for appointment to that office he has to take his examination and qualify under the provisions of the civil service of our Federal government. I wish further to call your attention briefly to the fact that New York, the great State on our north, New Jersey on our east and Ohio on our west are under civil service quite similar to this present bill and first and second class cities are ruled under conditions of civil service quite similar to this bill. Civil service means efficiency in government. The spoils system or the system of political appointments is the greatest enemy of efficient government. There never was a time in the history of the world that efficiency of our government was of greater importance than at the present time. There never was a time when we needed and when we must have men of the highest character and men of competence and ability to handle the affairs of our government as there is at this present time. Inefficiency is the worst enemy of democracy; efficiency is the enemy of the spoil system. Efficiency is the greatest friend of liberty and liberty-loving people. Efficiency, competition for public office, men who qualify under an examination proper and adequate for the office which they fill is in the interests of all the people. We sometimes forget in our governmental affairs that there is a minority that needs protection and the best that we can give them in the way of government. When we have an election very frequently the people who participate in that election and elect their candidate is only a small minority of the whole total government. Now if we adopt civil service which has become a success in our National government and has been a success in all the great cities of this country, if we adopt that we mean more efficiency in government. For the sake of efficiency; for the sake of good government and for the sake of that efficiency that is absolutely demanded at this present time under the conditions of world powers and the great catastrophe which the people of those countries have been thrown into I ask you men to support this bill in order that we may have better government, cleaner government and more efficiency in all of its departments.

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lawrence.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. Wallace, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir, I will.

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Wallace what number of men would come under the provisions in this bill?

Mr. WALLACE. I don't know the number but there will be a great many.

Mr. STOFFLET. How many thousand men do you suppose will come under?

Mr. WALLACE. I wouldn't like to "suppose," because I don't know. If the gentleman knows I will be glad to have him tell the members of the House.

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman and ask him, is it or is it not a fact that every policeman and every fireman in every third class city in the State of Pennsylvania has contributed one dollar to some particular fund or person for the passage of this act?

Mr. WALLACE. That is not a fact. The policemen in the city which I have the honor to represent in this House have not contributed one cent to this fund or to any other legislative fund. I assume, also, that they have not done so in any other place, because I know from what source and in what manner the little small amounts of the fund contributed have come from.

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, has the gentleman ever seen a circular letter sent out by someone to all of the policemen and firemen in third class cities throughout the State, asking that one dollar be subscribed?

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I have not. The policemen of third class cities have a bill introduced in this Legislature in which they are very greatly interested, and which they have been requesting their friends and representatives to support. As far as this particular bill is concerned, I know of no special interest which they have in it, except in a general they are for it.

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, then the gentleman has no knowledge as to what has become of this money.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, what money does the gentleman refer to?

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, the money that has been subscribed by firemen and policemen in third class cities throughout the State.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I know nothing about that. The firemen and policemen in my city have not subscribed anything for this or any other fund, legislative or otherwise, in connection with this general Legislature.

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I think it is only fair to state my experience in referenec to this bill. I have seen the circular letter sent to every policeman and fireman in the City of Easton asking that one dollar be subscribed. Every fireman and policeman in the City of Easton has subscribed his dollar. I have traced that money into the hands of Captain Simmers, a detective in the employ or the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company. Captain Simmers will not divulge the name of the party to whom he has sent his check, but I understood from the policemen and firemen, and even the two health officers, in our town, that every policeman and fireman and the two health officers in the Cities of Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown, as far as I could learn, had contributed one dollar to a fund to force the passage of this bill through this House. Now, gentlemen, I think it is only fair that every man in this House should be acquainted with these facts, and after knowing these facts, it will be a wonder to me how you will vote.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Northampton.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Stofflet, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Northampton whether he knows if that fund relates to the bill under consideration or to another bill that is pending in the Legislature which relates specifically to firemen and policemen of third class cities?

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, I understood from the policemen and firemen that gave me the information that it referred to this bill, to bring them under the civil service examination.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, that is the State-wide bill?

Mr. STOFFLET. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, and not the third class city bill?

Mr. STOFFLET. No, sir.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman further.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Stofflet, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman aware of the fact that this if passed would not apply to third class cities until they had elected to come in under its provisions?

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir, I am aware of that fact.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, does not the gentleman think it would be quite strange for them to contribute or to be asked to contribute to a bill that does not affect them?

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, I have not questioned the strangeness or propriety of their contributions, but I know that they have been made.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman knows as a fact, does he, that these contributions have been made for the purpose of advancing this particular bill?

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, I have been so informed.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman aware of the fact that a bill providing for civil service for fireman of third class cities has been passed by this General Assembly and signed by the Governor?

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman aware of the fact that there is a bill on the calendar that provides for civil service for policemen of third class cities?

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, does not the gentleman think that that is the bill they are interested in?

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, no sir.

Mr. WALLACE. Has the gentleman any information that this is the bill?

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, I was told by the health officer in the City of Easton that it was the bill introduced by Mr. Wallace from Lawrence.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman was told by the health officer?

Mr. STOFFLET. Mr. Speaker, he is also one of the policemen.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lawrence.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. Wallace, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, how many counties does this bill effect of over 250,000?

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, four counties.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, if it is such a good bill, why don't the gentleman bring his county into it?

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, we will accept it as soon as it is passed.

Mr. STITES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to just add a word in seconding the remarks made by the gentleman from Lawrence. I think it will be admitted, without the necessity of any proof, that our good friend from Northampton while he may have entered the proper church, is seated in wrong pew. This proposition of civil service is not new. It was started in the federal service away back in 1883 when a disappointed office seeker shot the president of the United States, Garfield, and the demand for something in the way of civil service became so strong that it was immediately taken up. The following year the great State of Massachusetts adopted it, and as has been said by the sponsor of the bill civil service is now in effect in many of the big states of the Union, New York, Massachusetts, New Jersey, and Illinois, and in some two hundred and fifty cities of the United States. In fact I think something like thirty-six per cent. of the population of the country now enjoy civil service. It is significant I think that in those states where civil service has had a trial there has been no return to the old system. The chief advantage in it is that it is a good business proposition. It pays. Men realize that one of the greatest needs of successful employment is that the employees shall have a singleness of purpose in their work. If he is sincere in his desire to do a day's work, and is not worried by the proposition of what this or that political leader or someone else may think about him he is likely to do a much better day's work. The chief objection to the bill comes from two sources, they are either those who are beneficiaries of the present system, or those who are not familiar with the advantages of civil service. I think it will be admitted by all those who are familiar with the actual operation of the law that the law has worked very well. I recall a single instance in the City of Philadelphia some four or five years ago. The city needed a man in a position of director of the Bureau of City Lighting, having to do with city gas. Under a competitive examination, a gentleman secured that position. He was so effective in his work, that he was sought to become president of Drexel Institute, and only within the last two or three weeks, the President of the United States selected Dr. Hollis Godfrey as one of his committee on National Defense, a man who has become distinguished the country over for efficiency in his work. It seems to that there are merits in this bill that ought to appeal to all public spirited legislators and I trust that the bill will have your sanction and your vote.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, this is the third session that I have been attending this Legislature, and in each session a bill similar to this has come before this body. The first session it was passed by one vote. Two years ago it was stricken from the calendar, now we have the bill up again. The bill takes in four counties at the present time, and it might be called state wide civil service, it taken in the Counties of Allegheny, Lackawanna, Luzerne and Philadelphia.

These four counties has a population of over two hundred and fifty thousand. It makes it optional with the other sixty-three counties of our State whether they want to accept the provisions of this law by referendum vote. I believe to-day that the civil service laws as they are on our books and as they are enforced, if they were put before the people on a referendum vote that there would be no civil service on the statute books to-day of this great Commonwealth. What does this mean? State employes in every county of these four counties are to be placed under civil service, every county employe is to be placed under civil service; men who have served probably for years and have proved efficient and have proved capable and who have had practical experience in their work, are to be cast aside at the first opportunity after this law becomes effective, and then the civil service conditions are enforced, and the man who has the opportunity to go into the colleges or the higher institutions, comes to compete with the practical man who has had the experience. Unfortunately the practical man cannot compete with the man who has the theory, and the result is that the man who has the theory gets the place and the practical man is turned down. I am here to-day in the interest of the practical man. I have here a circular from the secretary of the Civil Service Reform Association. We very seldom hear of this reform association, only about once a year, like the ground hog, they come out and see their shadow and they issue circulars like this and then they go back into their holes and that is the end of it. But if there is a violation of the laws in these cities or in city affairs, you very seldom see this wonderful association going around to prosecute the people who violate the law. It is only at these times when the Legislature is in session that we see this association coming forward telling us members of the Legislature what we must do in order to get men, efficient men, to conduct the affairs of this State and of our counties and of our cities. The signer of this, the secretary of the Civil Service Reform Association, was a little over a year ago secretary to the honorable mayor of our city. Previous to the election of a reform mayor, we thought the salary of three thousand dollars was ample for that particular office, secretary to the mayor, but when the reform element came in, they elected the secretary of the Reform Association to that position and increased his salary from three thousand dollars to six thousand dollars a year, and now he is out of a job. Now he comes to the good people of Pennsylvania, telling us what reforms in civil service laws will do for the common people. I do not hear the people, the common people, crying for or advocating civil service laws, the majority of the people to-day. Men who have had practical experience and who compete for these jobs, as I have seen the workings of it in the city of Philadelphia, men who have served twenty-five to thirty years in certain departments—have been removed. Then we have a theoretical man put in who knows nothing at all about the work, deliberately standing there and receiving the money, the theoretical man who is unable to perform the work, in the place of men who have proved to the people their ability to do the work. What are you going to do here? You are going to put every State employe under this system. There may be some poor fellow down in your county unable to pass this theoretical examination after the law becomes effective, is going to be removed some time. While he has the practical experience of years he is going to be removed, and a man who can pass this is to be put in his place. And I cannot see, gentlemen, why my good friend from Lawrence has been the sponsor of this bill. He comes from a county of seventy thousand inhabitants. This bill certainly makes it optional with him, with any county outside of the four counties I have mentioned, and we know that when they put it before the people for a referendum vote, none of these sixty-three counties will adopt the law as it is now before us to-day. Furthermore, they have included in this bill the famous police bill, almost identically the same as we have been voting upon here, known as the Philadelphia measure, which prohibits a man from talking to his friend in regard to politics. Another Philadelphia bill is incorporated in it in regard to political assessments or contributions, and that is another point, that nobody in these counties will be able to accept a contribution or ask for one under this bill. Now is the time that it ought to be stricken from the calendar, and I move you, Mr. Speaker, that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. WOBENSMITH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, there have been a number of efforts made during this session to improve the civil service of cities of the first class. The gentleman who represent the districts in the city of the first class of this State have differed very pronouncedly about the merits of these bills. If my memory serves me correctly, it was said by one of the gentlemen from Philadelphia, in the course of one of these debates on civil service bills relating solely to cities of the first class, that if this bill were made State wide it ought to pass. Now this is such a bill; it plays no favorites. This bill emanates from no faction. It is the product of the so-called theroists, whose founder was George William Curtis, of Harper's Weekly, who began the fight for civil service more than forty years ago. This civil service system has grown to such an extent that practically all the employes of the national government are under civil service. As has been told you this evening by the other speakers, a number of the great states of the Union have placed their employes under civil service. Now, Mr. Speaker, I believe that it would be good politics and good business for the State of Pennsylvania to adopt this bill. Two years ago I heard the executive of this Commonwealth say that there were five thousand men in the employ of the State of Pennsylvania who would go if he said so. Now that condition of affairs is not as it should be—it is more than one man ought to handle. The personality of every one of these five thousand and his capability cannot be known to the chief executive, and he is the man that is responsible. If they were selected by competitive examination—which I grant you has faults, but is better than anything else that is devised for this purpose, as shown by the experience of the government of the United States—it has faults, but if that were true, if these employes were selected by competitive examination, we would not have that spectacle of the Senate and the Executive quarreling over the appointments as to the heads of departments. It does not matter particularly to the gentlemen who are leaders in politics in the State of Pennsylvania as to who is the head of the department, but it does matter immensely who are his employes. Certain heads of the departments have the appointment of a great number of employes, and that is the reason that these departments get into factional politics. This man gets his appointment, as we all know if we would admit it, not because he is fit, but because he is recommended by Tom, Dick and Harry. If a railroad company would select its employes on that basis, it would go into a receivership, no matter how rich it might be, inside of a few years.

The business of the Commonwealth has grown enormously, the number of employes has grown enormously, and if the Commonwealth is going to engage in all such sorts of activities which were foreign to the purpose of government only a few years ago, such as having a Department of Health, Department of Forestry, Workmen's Compensation Bureau and the Highway Department, and all that sort of thing, some other method than mere political pull must be used to select its employes. You cannot make an engineer out of a politician; you cannot make an efficient health officer out of a man who can control so many divisions in a ward; and you cannot do anything unless you divorce these positions from "pull" and politics That is what this bill is intended to do and therefore it ought to pass.

As long ago as 1895, when Senator Quay and the then administration under Governor Hastings had their celebrated set-to, the Republican party at that time declared in favor of a Civil Service Bill substantially in form as this one is and if the majority of this House were to adhere to that platform adopted at that time it would pass this bill without a dissenting vote on our side of the House. I do not anticipate any such result, but the older members of this body will remember that at that time Senator Quay, in the convention which he controlled, declared for civil service with backbone in it and this is such a bill, and therefore we ought to vote for it and the statue out in the hall will bless us as we pass from the Capitol this evening.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion to strike the bill from the calendar?

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, on this question I ask for the "yeas" and "nays."

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I second the call for the "yeas" and "nays."

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the motion to strike the bill from the calendar.

Mr. WOBENSMITH. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my second to the motion to strike the bill from the calendar.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SIGGINS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. Wallace.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. Wallace, permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. SIGGINS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I desire to inquire of the gentleman from Lawrence County as to whether it is his opinion that this bill is constitutional insofar as it violates Section 8, Article 4, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which is the section providing for the appointing power of State officers in the government.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I have no question whatever of the constitutionality of this act. It has been drawn and passed upon by some of the best lawyers in the Commonwealth and I have no question whatever but that this bill is constitutional.

Mr. SIGGINS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, the third section of this bill providing that "The term Civil Service of the Commonwealth shall include all officers, positions and employments in which the officers or employes are paid from the State Treasury, and all officers positions or employments in or under institutions, departments, boards or commissions wherein the Commonwealth, either directly or through any commission, board, official or officials has the right to appoint or select"—in my opinion violates Section 8 of Article 4 of the Constitution of the State and consequently I will vote against this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1166, as follows:

An Act to provide a method upon petition of owner with notice to wife of bankrupt for ascertaining determining and charging statutory interest inchoate on lands of bankrupt sold under order of United States Court by report of viewers and decree of court of common pleas in certain cases freeing and discharging part of such lands from such statutory interest inchoate and charging same upon a portion of lands formerly owned by bankrupt in case of death of wife during life of bankrupt or after his death to discharge the lands from such statutory interest inchoate or statutory interest fixed by decree of court providing for service of rules and notices and for appeal from final decree of such court

Whereas real estate of bankrupts sold under order of the United States courts is not discharged of statutory interest inchoate but is taken by the purchaser subject to such statutory interest and

Whereas it is desirable that a method of ascertaining and determining such statutory interest inchoate should be established before the death of the bankrupt therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in any instance where lands of a bankrupt have been or shall hereafter be sold under order of the United States courts and the bankrupt shall be living and shall have a wife living who was his lawful wife during any portion of the time between the date of being declared a bankrupt and completion of sale of his real estate it shall be lawful for the purchaser or purchasers or any of them his their or its heirs successors or assigns to present a petition to the court of common pleas of the county in which such real estate may be situate setting forth the facts together with a description of the real estate owned by the petitioner or petitioners and praying the said court to grant a rule upon the wife of the bankrupt to appear upon a day certain to be designated by said court to show cause if any she has why viewers should not be appointed to ascertain and determine the statutory interest inchoate which she might be entitled to upon the death of her husband the bankrupt should she survive him and also why such statutory interest inchoate should not be entirely charged upon a certain part or portion of the real estate formerly owned by such bankrupt provided the same could be divided and a part thereof should be found by the viewers to be sufficient to secure such statutory interest inchoate

Section 2 Whereupon it shall be the duty of said court of common pleas to direct a rule to issue to be served upon the wife of the bankrupt at least ten days before the return day Such service shall be personal if the wife of the bankrupt resides in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania should she not reside in the county where the rule issues the sheriff of that county shall transmit the rule to the sheriff of the county wherein she resides and that official shall have authority to make such service and return thereof through the sheriff of the county wherein the rule issues to the court should she not reside in the Commonwealth or should it appear by affidavit of petitioner that her residence is not known and could not be ascertained by diligent inquiry then such service shall be by publication for three successive weeks in one or more newspapers of the county wherein the rule issues the last publication to be ten days before the return day

Section 3 On any day after the return day if it shall appear to the court of common pleas that service of the rule has been made personally or by publication then it shall be the duty of the court to appoint five viewers who shall fix a day for hearing and give notice thereof to the wife of the bankrupt in the manner herein provided for service of the rule

Section 4 Upon the day of hearing testimony shall be heard upon part of petitioner and upon part of respondent should she appear and produce witnesses or other evidence which testimony shall be reduced to writing and filed by the viewers with their report to the court

Section 5 The viewers shall find the facts and make report to the court and such report shall contain the following

(1) The name and residence of the bankrupt the court by which he was declared a bankrupt and the date thereof

(2) The name and residence of the wife of the bankrupt or if her residence shall not be known this fact shall appear

(3) A description of all the real estate held by petitioners and formerly owned by the bankrupt and subject to statutory interest inchoate at the date when he was declared a bankrupt and date when such real estate was sold by order of the United States court and the name of the purchaser or purchasers

(4) The name of the owner or owners of such real estate together with the market value thereof exclusive of the statutory interest inchoate at the time of the hearing and report of viewers

(5) Whether the real estate owned by the petitioner or petitioners could be divided so that the statutory interest inchoate could be secured and charged on a particular portion thereof and if so then a description and draft of each part thereof with the market value of each purpart

(6) A recommendation by the viewers or a majority thereof as to the real estate or the portion thereof upon which such statutory interest inchoate should be charged and in case of division which portion of such real estate should be freed and discharged of such statutory interest inchoate

(7) A finding by the viewers or a majority thereof of the amount of statutory interest inchoate and description of the land upon which the same shall be charged

(8) The report to be signed by not less than a majority of the viewers

Section 6 Upon the filing of the report of viewers the same shall be confirmed nisi and if exceptions to the findings of fact and report of viewers be not filed within ten days the same shall be confirmed absolutely

Section 7 Should exceptions be filed the same shall be heard by the court of common pleas and the findings and report of the viewers shall be affirmed or modified as may be determined by the court and a decree made accordingly fixing and determining the statutory interest inchoate which the respondent may be entitled to upon the death of her husband should she survive him and the land or lands or portion or portions thereof upon which such statutory interest inchoate shall be charged and in case of division freeing and discharging from such statutory interest inchoate other lands owned by and belonging to petitioners

Section 8 Upon the death of the bankrupt and the survival of his wife she shall be entitled to statutory interest upon the valuation fixed and determined by the report of viewers as approved or modified by the court and charged upon such lands by the decree of said court

Section 9 Upon the death of the wife of the bankrupt during the life of the bankrupt or after his death upon proof of such fact duly made to the court of common pleas the court shall decree that the statutory interest inchoate or statutory interest charged upon such land shall be discharged and the same shall be held by the owner free of such statutory interest inchoate

Section 10 Either party shall have the right of appeal from any final decree of the court of common pleas and the same shall be heard and determined by the appellate court and a decree entered accordingly

Section 11 Only lands formerly of the bankrupt and owned by petitioner or petitioners shall be affected by this act

Section 12 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1917 — 122nd of the General Assembly

VOL. 4. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MAY 22, 1917. No. 59.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, May 22, 1917.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. E. E. Beidleman) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Thomas W. Davis, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we thank Thee that in the great crisis upon us today we are beginning to realize that there is "a divinity that shapes our lives" in this great struggle. It is no longer simply a military struggle, but we believe that it is becoming a conflict of the pen, the platform and the forum; and with all the powers of thought and feeling. We pray that Thy blessing may continue to be with us so that out of this awful strife there may crystalize a larger and better brotherhood of mankind than the world has ever known. We ask these blessings in our Saviour's name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. HOMSHER the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 917, entitled

An Act making available for expenditure during the two fiscal years beginning June first, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen the sum of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars remaining unexpended from appropriations made by section two of an act of Assembly approved the eighteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I would like to have an explanation from the author of this bill as to what is intended to be accomplished by this act.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McKee, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McKEE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I would like the Senator from Allegheny to explain what is intended by the bill.

Mr. McKEE. Mr. President, it appropriates the unexpended balance of the appropriation made two years ago to take care of these organizations which are being united when the organizations now in existence leave the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, is it not a fact that we already appropriated in the General Appropriation Bill five hundred thousand dollars for a similar purpose?

Mr. McKEE. Mr. President, to take care of present organizations.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, but for the two fiscal years, beginning June 1, 1917, that would make a total of eight hundred and some odd thousand dollars for the State to take care of.

Mr. McKEE. Mr. President, so much of it as will be used.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, is it not also a fact that out of the two million dollars which have been appropriated there can be taken money for defense purposes.

Mr. McKEE. Mr. President, I do not think so.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, that is my understanding of the two million dollars. I just want to see how much accumulation of the balance that we are going to have for defense purposes.

Mr. HALDEMAN. Mr. President, that five hundred thousand dollars is an appropriation made every year.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I would like to inform the Senator from Lancaster, that this five hundred thousand dollars that will be appropriated by this session can be appropriated for this particular purpose. Now, $500,000 plus the balance that we are appropriating here, three hundred and some odd thousand is reaching rather a large amount of money plus the two million dollars which I have in my mind that the Governor and the committee has a right for purposes of defense to utilize for this particular purpose. All I want to know is just how far we are going to reach into the amount of money to be set aside for some indefinite purpose.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 949, entitled

An Act requiring that expenses be paid to State employes not later than the tenth of each month for the preceding month.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question.

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.
The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Blair, Mr. Snyder, will state his question of personal privilege.
Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, on April 23 I introduced a concurrent resolution which was referred to the Committee on Law and Order. I appealed to that committee personally to have it considered and reported on. My appeals were refused. I have decided to take the floor of the Senate and ask to have that committee discharged, but while I was assured this morning the committee had decided to meet and consider this resolution, postponing, however, the consideration of it until next week. It is an important thing to some of us, very important. It is a matter of principle with me, but I want to be courteous to this committee—they have not been so to me, but I will be courteous to them—and if they will meet and consider this today or to-morrow morning, then I will postpone calling this matter up until at our session to-morrow. Therefore, Mr. President, I wish to state to the members of this Senate that I will call this question up at our session to-morrow morning.
Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, in reply to the Senator from Blair, I wish to state to all the members of this Senate that the committee appreciates the fact that he has worked diligenly, urgently and sincerely in his effort to have this particular resolution cared for by our committee, the Committee on Law and Order. I realize that this is a big proposition. It is a big proposition for the Senator and for every other member in this Senate, together with being a big proposition for all the people of this Commonwealth, and I want to say that I have said to him that I would try to call the committee together for the purpose of hearing his side of the question, and the other side of the question, and I feel that that ought to be done. However, it has so happened that it was almost impossible at any time fixed to get all the members or a majority of the members of that committee together at a meeting. I feel that on next Tuesday morning, after a week's notice to every member of the Senate and particularly the members of the Law and Order Committee, they will all be present and their versions heard. If after the notice given to the various members of this committee they do not see fit to appear at the committee hearing, and anything should happen that would be disagreeable to them, of course, that would be their misfortune. I, however, want to state to the Senator from Blair that there is absolutely no question that there will be a meeting of that committee on next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, and he, together with any committee that he may have in view, or may have ideas of getting together between now and next week will be heard. The meeting will be absolutely held next Tuesday at 10 o'clock, and his bill, together with other bills, will be considered at that time.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. McKEE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1053 (House Bill No. 1154), on third reading postponed for the present, entitled

An Act authorizing the judges of the separate orphans' court in counties having a population of over eight hundred thousand and less than one million five hundred thousand inhabitants to fix and determine the salaries of assistant clerks in said court

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.
The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,
The Senate resumed the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1053 (House Bill No. 1154), entitled

An Act authorizing the judges of the separate orphans' court in counties having a population of over eight hundred thousand and less than one million five hundred thousand inhabitants to fix and determine the salaries of assistant clerks in said court

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,
On the question,
Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Section 992 The ordinance shall provide for written notice to be given to the property owners to grade and construct such sidewalk in front of their respective properties within a certain period not less than thirty days from the date of service of such notice Service of such notice shall be made by handing the same to the property owner or by leaving it at his place of residence if he has one in the county or if he does not reside in the county by mailing the notice to his address if his address can be obtained In all cases a copy of such notice shall be served upon the occupant of the premises

Section 993 Should any property owner fail to comply with the requirements of the ordinance within the time specified in the notice the board of township commissioners may cause the sidewalk in front of his property to be constructed in accordance with the requirement of the ordinance and collect the cost thereof including the costs of grading and any other incidental matters together with the penalty of ten per centum by action of assumpsit or by filing a municipal lien against said property

Section 994 If at the time of the passage of the ordinance a sidewalk paved with brick stone or concrete has already been constructed by a property owner in front of his property the township commissioners may accept such walk as a compliance with the ordinance although not constructed according to the specifications thereof If such sidewalk is not accepted the township shall bear the expense of reconstructing it

(f) Establishing Grading and Curbing Sidewalks Along the Sides of any Principal Street or Highway Leading to or Connecting Cities Boroughs Villages or Places of Public Resort

Section 1005 The board of township commissioners of any township of the first class may ordain and establish sidewalks within the lines of any principal street or highway in the township along either one or both sides thereof leading directly to or connecting cities boroughs villages or places of public resort for such distance as the board of township commissioners may deem proper and may provide for the grading and curbing of the same In case the street or highway is a turnpike or other road managed and controlled by a corporation incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth by a corporation incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth the written consent of the corporation shall first be obtained

Section 1006 Such sidewalk shall in no case be less than five feet in width nor leave a roadway of less than twenty feet in the clear

Section 1007 The ordinance establishing any such sidewalk shall specify the width thereof and shall require such grading and filling as is necessary It shall also specify the kind and character of the pavement or provide for the construction of a boardwalk instead of a paved sidewalk The manner of laying the pavement may be specified in the ordinance or provided for by general ordinance or by the regulation of a committee of the board

Section 1008 The ordinance shall provide for written notice to be given to the property owners to grade and construct such sidewalk in front of their respective properties within a certain period not less than three (3) months from date of the service of such notice Service of such notice shall be made by handing the same to the property owner or by leaving it at his place of residence if he has one in the county or if he does not reside in the county by mailing the notice to his address if his address can be obtained In all cases a copy of such notice shall be served upon the occupant of the premises

Section 1009 When such notice is given on or after the first day of September in any year the property owners affected shall not be in default for failure to construct the sidewalk until the first day of June of the following year

Section 1010 Should any property owner fail to comply with the requirements of the ordinance within the time specified the board of township commissioners may cause the sidewalk in front of his property to be constructed in accordance with the requirements of the ordinance and collect the proportion of the expense thereof which under the ordinance is chargeable upon the property owner including the costs of grading and any other incidental matters together with the penalty of ten per centum by action of assumpsit or by filing a municipal lien against said property

Section 1011 The board of township commissioners may charge to the owners of the properties abutting on such sidewalk according to frontage such part of the expense of the construction thereof including grading and curbing as they deem reasonable Such part of the expense shall in no case exceed fifty per centum of the total cost of the construction of the sidewalk The remainder of the expense of the construction of the sidewalk shall be paid out of the township funds

Section 1012 When any sidewalk has been constructed by an abutting property owner in front of his property as required by the ordinance the township commissioners upon the presentation to them of a receipted bill for the cost of constructing such sidewalk shall forthwith pay to the property owner the part of the expenses of the construction of the sidewalk which by the terms of the ordinance is to be defrayed from the township funds If such part of the expense of the construction of the sidewalk which is to be defrayed from the township funds is not paid forthwith to the property owner by the board of township commissioners the property owner may collect the same in a suit or suits against the township as debts of like amount are now by law collected

Section 1013 If at the time of the passage of the ordinance a sidewalk paved with brick stone or concrete has already been constructed by a property owner in front of his property the township commissioners may accept such walk as a compliance with the ordinance although not constructed according to the specifications thereof If such sidewalk is not accepted the township shall bear the expense of reconstructing it

(g) Repair of Sidewalks

Section 1025 In townships of the first class where sidewalks have been established by township ordinance the owner of the abutting property shall keep the sidewalk immediately in front of his property in good order and repair and at all times free and clear of all obstruction to safe and convenient passage

Section 1026 If the owner of any property neglects to perform the duty required of him in the preceding section the township commissioners may serve written notice upon him requiring him to do what is necessary If such property owner fails to comply with the requirements of such notice within thirty days from the date of its service the township commissioners may make the necessary repairs or remove any obstruction The cost of the same together with a penalty of ten per centum shall be paid by the delinquent property owner and may be collected by action in the name of the township as debts of like amount are collected or the township commissioners may file a municipal lien against the property

Section 1027 The notice provided for in the preceding section may be served on the property owner by leaving the same at his place of residence or if he has no residence in the township then by leaving the same with the tenant or occupant of the premises and mailing a copy thereof to the owner at his last known address

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 2 o'clock P. M. until Wednesday morning, May 23, 1917, at 10 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, May 22, 1917.

The House met at 10 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin), in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. S. G. Zerfass, offered the following prayer:

O Lord, our friend, we lift our hearts to Thee in earnest prayer as we begin our duties to-day. Wilt Thou draw us near to Thyself and give us tender comfort in this time of anxiety. We ask Thy blessing to each one of us here assembled. Sustain us by Thy grace, grant us more patience and trust, and make us ever ready for better service. Forgive us for our human frailties and continued weaknesses, and cause us to labor for a glorious immortality and to plunge into the eternal forest that sleeps in front and blaze the trees, making our aims ever higher, stronger and purer and bringing us to entire consecration and a glorious liberty that only the real sons of God enjoy. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.
